UD TO EXPAND SUMMER REUNION WEEKEND FOR ALUMNI

DAYTON, Ohio, May 10, 1990--Four classes of University of Dayton alumni will gather on campus June 22-24 for an expanded reunion weekend.

Members of the graduating classes of 1940, 1950, 1965 and 1970 are being invited to return to UD for a weekend of socializing and reminiscing. Established last year for two graduating classes, the summer reunion weekend allows classmates to stay on campus while they catch up on friendships.

"This summertime schedule provides an opportunity for our alumni to use all of the facilities on campus," said Regis Lekan, director of alumni and parent relations at UD. "They will virtually have run of the campus for the weekend, including the opportunity to stay overnight in suites in our newest residence building, Kettering Residence Hall, for reunion weekend."

For registration materials and more information on reunion activities, contact the alumni and parent relations office at UD at (513) 229-3299.
